

DCM 2301 Developing a Christian Mind
Review for Final Exam

Your Mind Matters

- Mindless Christianity
- Anti-intellectualism
- Antidote to this problem
- Reasons why we should use our minds
- Role of the Mind in the Christian life
- How we should act on our knowledge

Biblical epistemology

- The main features of biblical epistemology
- Existential and experiential
- Covenantal epistemology

Theology of Calling and Vocation

- Definition
- Distinctions between primary and secondary callings
- Luther's and Calvin's description of calling (know well)
- Catholic distortion of calling
- Protestant distortion of calling
- Implications of doctrine of calling for students
- The Elixir by George Herbert
- Mark and Sammy by Billy Crockett

Biblical Principles and Purposes of Work

- Work as an gift and blessing of God
- God as worker
- Humans as God's co-workers
- Impact of sin on work
- Impact of redemption on work
- Purposes of work

The Call by Os Guinness

- Read and study chapter _____ and be prepare to answer questions on this chapter.

Essay Question (Really important):

On the basis of information learned in this class, answer this question: What is a Christian mind and what difference should the possession of a Christian mind make in the life a believer?

To answer this question, review Transforming Vision, creation, fall, redemption, the problem of dualism, the essay by H. Stob (Note to a College Freshman), and any other material you think will help you to write an outstanding, meaningful, deep essay!