

the Dr. and Mrs. Harry T. Ku Room

International Center Room Dedicated in Honor of Servant Leaders

DBU recently dedicated a classroom in the new International Center in honor of servant leaders Dr. and Mrs. Harry T. Ku (pictured right). The room, which was provided by funds from the Ku family, is equipped with multimedia technology, including a mobile computer center, speakers, and a projection unit.

A native of China, Harry Ku spent four decades at the North China Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, both at their original location in Shantung and later at its permanent location in Taiwan, when it became known as the Taiwan Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. In 1971, Dr. and Mrs. Ku traveled to the United States and began a ten-year career serving at First Baptist Church of Dallas.

Dr. and Mrs. Ku currently live in Dallas and are the proud parents of six children—Dr. Alice Ku Chwang, Dr. Charles Ku, Mrs. Harriet Ku Kung (wife of DBU professor Daniel Kung), Mrs. Rosemary Wong, Mr. Danny Ku, and Dr. Wayne Ku—and thirteen grandchildren.

Pictured below right are Dr. Charles Ku and Daniel Kung. Daniel serves as an assistant professor of criminal justice at DBU. Dr. Charles Ku serves as a dentist in Lewisville and is currently chairman of the DBU board of trustees.

