Change of Dependency Status

STUDENT NAME: _____ STUDENT ID: _____

The Office of Financial Aid is required by federal law to consider parental contribution for dependent students applying for federal financial aid unless the student meets one of the following conditions allowed on the 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid.

A financial aid counselor or director may override a student's dependency status if "other unusual circumstances" exist in the family and create a situation where the student must cover his or her educational expenses without the parents' help. The Department of Education has interpreted the phrase 'other unusual circumstances' in section 480(d)(7) to mean unusual circumstances that make it unreasonable to expect a parental contribution for the student. 'Unusual circumstances' could include, but are not limited to:

1. Student has been a victim of domestic violence and no longer resides with parents.
2. Student has been part of an abusive family environment (e.g., sexual, physical or mental abuse)
3. Abandonment by parents (i.e., no contact and no support for at least one year)
4. Incarceration or institutionalization of both parents; or
5. Death of both parents or death of only parent in a single-family household.

The following circumstances do not merit a dependency override:

1. Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.
2. Parents refuse to contribute to the student's education.
3. Parents are unwilling to provide information on the application or verification documents.
4. Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.

The law also requires that the determination of unusual circumstance(s) be made each award year. A determination of independence in one year does not mean that the student would automatically be an independent student in a subsequent award year. The financial aid administrator must affirm, in the subsequent year, that the conditions for determining the student to be independent continue to exist and continue to make expecting a parental contribution inappropriate.
