*2. Textbook Information

20 U.S.C. 1015b (20 U.S.C. 1015b)

As of March 2024, DBU has moved to Slingshot as their campus bookstore provider. Information regarding required and recommended textbooks and supplemental material for courses may be found at <https://dbu.slingshotedu.com/>. Be sure to look at Slingshots FAQ page for in depth information on purchasing/rental option, available plans, and how to obtain pricing for your books.

At DBU, all students are opted in to Slingshot when they start their program with a preference for rental books set as the default. You will stay opted in for future terms unless you choose to opt out. Any student can opt out or return unneeded books, but we can't guarantee we will have books for students that are opted out. Students that have opted out can still place online orders from this website or the campus store.

Students can also learn about their textbooks online at the DBU Bookstore.

Disbursement For Books and Supplies

Penal Code Sec. 42.06. FALSE ALARM OR REPORT.

*11. Professional Licensure Notice

DBU offers multiple programs designed to lead to licensure or certification. For licensing board contact information, see the link above for a non-exhaustive list. This list is not comprehensive, and students interested in obtaining licensure in one of the SARA states should independently research state licensing requirements. It is highly recommended that students seek this information and additional guidance before beginning a program.

State Authorization refers to the requirement that institutions of higher education obtain authorization for their distance education offerings from individual states, in accordance with each individual state’s laws and regulations. The State of Texas and Dallas Baptist University are members of the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA).

NC-SARA Profession Licensure Resource website for a detailed discussion of what students should consider in licensure programs as well as access to the NC-SARA Professional Licensure Directory.

*12 Criminal History and Occupational License Notice

If you are applying for admission to a program that may prepare you for an occupational license and/or if you later decide to change to such a program, Texas law requires that DBU notify you of your potential ineligibility to obtain a license due to prior criminal convictions. Additional information can be found in DBU's State Authorizations and Licenses page or see Texas Occupations Code 53.001.

*13. Success Data

Dallas Baptist University is committed to student learning and success as part of its mission to “provide Christ-centered quality higher education.” To this end, DBU tracks and reports its performance regarding student retention, graduation rates, and other measures. For each of the measures published at the link above, a threshold of minimum acceptability is identified along with a justification, a goal for achievement is identified, and a brief narrative discusses DBU's evaluation of success in the identified area.

*14. Higher Education Opportunity Act Required Disclosures

In August of 2008, Congress enacted the Higher Education Opportunity Act (the “Act”) to reauthorize the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. Several of the Act's provisions require the University to make specific information available to students and the public. Additional disclosures can be found on the DBU Federal Compliance & Student Consumer Information webpage. If you need a written copy of this entire notification, please contact the DBU Financial Aid Office by calling 214-333-5363 or emailing finaid@dbu.edu.
