Keynote Speaker – Dr. Os Guinness

Os Guinness is an author and speaker who lives with his wife Jenny in the Washington DC area. Great-great grandson of Arthur Guinness, the Dublin brewer, he was born in China in World War Two where his parents were medical missionaries. A witness to the climax of the Chinese revolution in 1949, he was expelled with many other foreigners in 1951 and returned to Europe where he was educated in England. He completed his undergraduate degree at the University of London and his D.Phil in the social sciences from Oriel College, Oxford. Os has written or edited more than twenty books, including The America Hour, Time for Truth, The Call, Invitation to the Classics, and Long Journey Home. His book, Unspeakable: Facing up to evil in a world of genocide and terror was by Harper San Francisco in January 2005.

Previously, Os was a freelance reporter with the BBC. Since coming to the United States in 1984, he has been a Guest Scholar at the Woodrow Wilson Center for International Studies and a Guest Scholar and Visiting Fellow at the Brookings Institution. From 1986 to 1989, Os served as Executive Director of the Williamsburg Charter Foundation, a bicentennial celebration of the First Amendment. In this position he helped to draft the Williamsburg Charter and co-authored the public school curriculum Living With Our Deepest Differences. From 1991 until earlier this year he was a senior fellow at the Trinity Forum, and a frequent speaker and seminar leader at political and business conferences in both the United States and Europe. He has also lectured at many universities, including Oxford and Cambridge, Harvard and Stanford, and has spoken at the White House, Capitol Hill and other public policy arenas around Washington.

As a European visitor to this country and a great admirer but detached observer of American culture today, he stands in the long tradition of outside voices who have contributed so much to America's ongoing discussion about the state of the union.

"The Question Pool"

W/M Billy Crockett and Milton Brasher-Cunningham © 1998
from the CD Watermarks

Where did I leave my plastic halo?
Why can't I speak to my good friend?
Am I sleepwalking through the best years of my life?
How long is too long to pretend?
What do I owe my parents' generation?

What do I want and who would know?
Can I live on answers that were handed down to me?
Do I just hold on or just let go?

Chorus:

I am drinking from, I am drinking from,
I am drinking from the water blue; I am drinking from, I am drinking from,
I am drinking from the water blue, down at the question pool.

What is lying over my horizon?
What am I afraid of going through?
If whatever happens comes to push me past the edge,
Will all I believe in still be true?

I wonder what it all comes to for me, for you?
I wonder what it all comes to?
Why am I moved by stories of Eden?
What does its lovely sadness mean?
Am I a traveler who cannot remember home?
Why do I cry sometimes in dreams?
