

A Broadway Gala

April 11, 2005

The curtain lifted for A Broadway Gala: Love, Laughter, and Life! at Fort Worth's Bass Performance Hall this past April to a packed house as the DBU music department performed various numbers from the American musical theater.

Over 140 DBU students, faculty, and staff performers filled Bass Hall with the sights and sounds of Broadway, with numbers from such classics as West Side Story; The Wizard of Oz; Phantom of the Opera; Hello, Dolly!; Les Miserables; The Sound of Music; and Big River.

Production Staff included Dr. Bob Brooks (production coordinator), Dr. Stephen Holcomb (ensemble coordinator), Wes Moore (vocalist coordinator), Dr. Beth Quillian (pianist coordinator), C. Nicholas Morris (choreographer), Greg Hollabaugh (stage manager and technical consultant), and Dr. Terry Fansler (script writer).

Be sure to make plans for DBU's Christmas Festival, which will be held on the DBU campus on December 2 & 3, 2005. For more information about this upcoming event or about any of the events held by the DBU College of Fine Arts, please call 214.333.5316.
