

DBU CHORALE

gives concert at the

Washington National Cathedral

Dallas Baptist University's Chorale, under the direction of Dr. Stephen Holcomb, provided the choral prelude music for a special evening prayer service on Sunday, April 22, 2007, at the Washington National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. in honor of those affected by the Virginia Tech tragedy.

The Sunday service was scheduled as Texas Day, with many of the participants in the services from the state of Texas. The DBU Chorale had already been invited to participate prior to the tragic events that occurred on the Virginia Tech campus on April 16, 2007. In light of this national tragedy, the leadership at the National Cathedral decided to hold a special evening prayer service in remembrance of the Virginia Tech victims and the families impacted. Among the many who came to pay respects and offer prayers during the service were members of the Virginia Tech student body as well as the president of Virginia Tech.
