

38 DBU Students Selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

Dallas Baptist University selected 38 undergraduate students to represent the University as Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The students were chosen based on the qualifications of having outstanding scholarship (at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA) and a minimum of 60 credit hours. Not only that, they must have exhibited active participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, being a model for others in regards to citizenship and service to the University and local community.
